Washington, D.C., 20006

Dear Mr. Johnson:

We are writing to confirm our agreement that Greenberg Traurig, LLP ("Greenberg Traurig") will provide Washington Avenue International, LLC ("you" or "WAI") with legal counseling, including strategic advice and advocacy, to assist WAI in providing its client, the Office of Governor of Bayelsa State, a state within Nigeria, and further, to assist in filing any disclosures necessary under federal law. Our representation of WAI with respect to this matter will terminate on March 31, 2013, unless mutually continued. However, either party may terminate this retention earlier, as the case may be.

Under the D.C. Rules of Professional Conduct, we are obligated to set forth our basis for charging you for the legal services that we render. We will charge you a flat fee for the aforementioned representation in the amount $6,700 per month. We also bill for our expenses and other services, including postage, long-distance telephone, photocopies, travel, messenger services, and meals. We will submit monthly bills to you for payment within 30 days. See enclosed Billing Policies.

Since Greenberg Traurig represents a large number of diverse clients which may include clients involved in activities affecting you, we have agreed that your representation by Greenberg Traurig in this matter will not be grounds for asserting a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest in any unrelated work that the firm may do for other companies or persons, including governmental actors. Specifically, we have agreed that Greenberg Traurig may represent other companies or persons in matters that do not involve any confidential information that has been obtained by Greenberg Traurig in the course of our current representation of WAI, even though our representation of the other company or entity, including governmental entity, may be adversarial to WAI in business transactions, litigation, or judicial or administrative proceedings. We further understand that WAI and the Office of the Governor of Bayelsa State waive any conflict of interest in any such case, and will not assert any conflict of interest or any apparent conflict of interest as grounds for disqualifying Greenberg Traurig from representing other companies, persons, or governmental entities, whether foreign or domestic.

In the event of any dispute arising under or related to this agreement, the parties agree to submit the matter to a single arbitrator in Washington, D.C. selected by the parties, and if no agreement can be reached then an arbitrator selected by the American Arbitration Association

("AAA"). The arbitration is to be conducted in accordance with Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA, using the law of the District of Columbia (other than its conflict laws), and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The parties agree that arbitration under this paragraph shall provide the exclusive means for resolving any dispute arising under or relating to this agreement, including the services performed there under.

Under Rule 1 of the D.C. Rules of Professional Conduct, we have a duty of loyalty to you and in that regard will vigorously represent your interests. If these arrangements are acceptable, please sign and return one of the originals of this letter via the enclosed Federal Express envelope.

In spite of the formal trappings of this letter, I want to reiterate how very pleased and excited we are to be representing you in this matter. Please do not hesitate to call me with any questions at (202) 331-3183.

Sincerely yours,

Edward Barron // Barron
